

New Freighter Service to Calgary, Canada

Cathay Pacific Airways will boost its freighter services to and from Canada with a new twice-weekly scheduled service to Calgary commencing on 17 October 2014, subject to government approval.

The latest addition to Cathay Pacific's cargo network brings the total number of freighter destinations it serves in North America to 14. The new service will further strengthen the airline's presence in Canada and offer customers more choice and greater flexibility when transporting commodities to and from Asia.

The Calgary service will be operated by Boeing 747-8 Freighters which will fly machinery and perishables direct from Calgary to Hong Kong to connect with Cathay Pacific's extensive Asian network. Both the Tuesday and Friday services will operate on a Hong Kong-Anchorage-New York (JFK)-Calgary-Hong Kong routing, with an additional Columbus tag for the Friday flight.

Details of Cathay Pacific's new Calgary (YYC) freighter service from 17 October 2014 are as follows (all times local):
